Hello beach, it's so good to see you!

Is this how you greet the Atlantic shore as it comes into view when you first climb the bridge into Ocean City? Or do you whisper hello when you first see the salt marsh in the back bay? Whatever way you greet the island and its surrounding water, once you do say hello, take a deep breath of relief and exhale your worries away. After all, Ocean City is perfect for a quick getaway or an extended summer retreat. There's something for everyone here in America's Greatest Family Resort.

This is the land of sun and fun, family and friends, old traditions and new. This is your island – Ocean City, NJ. We're so happy to see you, too!

The Weather is Here...

Ocean City's weather is in a word... temperate. Thanks to being surrounded on all sides by water, the island stays cooler in summer and warmer in winter than the big cities nearby. Pack as you would for any island stay depending on the month of your visit (check out the Average Tempera- ture chart below for a basic seasonal guide), but keep in mind the Boardwalk and beach can be cooler than expected when the sun goes down. Though this could be the perfect time to buy that Ocean City hoodie you wanted as a souvenir.

The Beach

This is world-famous sand (a little more than eight miles of it, to be exact) and one afternoon lounging on it will help you understand why Ocean City is a vacation tradition for generations of families. The sand is clean, silky soft and plentiful, though you won't have to walk far to find a perfect spot for your beach blanket. For more information on beach rules, please see page 14.

Alcoholic Beverages

Ocean City is a “dry” town, one of a handful in the state of New Jersey. Alcohol is not sold anywhere on the island and alcohol consumption is prohibited in all public places, including the beach. Visitors can purchase alcohol before they enter the island.

Parking

The best way to enjoy Ocean City is to leave your car parked at your rental home, B&B, hotel, motel or guest house. The island is very walkable and bikeable. That said, sometimes a car is a necessity and you'll see plenty of parking spaces throughout the entire island, both metered and free. Meters run from May 1 through October 31, so please check carefully before you leave your car. For your convenience, many meters now take credit cards as a payment option.

If a parking lot is more your style, find city-operated lots on 5th, 8th, 9th and 14th Streets and on Moorlyn Terrace. There are also many private parking lots available.

Bicycling

“The bicycle is the noblest invention of mankind,” said William Saroyan. One ride around OC on your bike or surrey and you'll more than likely agree. A bike path runs through the center of town on Haven Avenue between 9th and 34th Streets. The Boardwalk allows bikes from 5am to Noon in the summer season and all day during the off-season. Additional shared-use bike lanes and bike-friendly roads run throughout town.

Helmets are required in New Jersey for all riders under 17 and recommended for everyone. Bicyclists should ride with traffic and obey all posted signs and signals. Ocean City has many bicycle and surrey rental companies. Visit www.bikeocnj.org to learn more.

Furry Friends

Leashed dogs are allowed on the beach October 1 to April 30. Guide dogs are allowed on the beach at any time. In the southend of the island you'll find the Ocean City Dog Park at 45th Street & Haven Avenue. The park is open dawn to dusk with a Paw Pass required for entry. Visit the dog park website, oceancitydogpark.org for more info.

Keeping it Clean

Ocean City relies on you to help it stay beautiful, clean, and free of litter. Please drop your trash in a proper receptacle. Ocean City recycles plastic, glass, aluminum and paper. These items should be separated from regular trash.

Emergencies

Call 911 to summon police, fire or rescue by phone. Tune your radio to 1620 AM for updates from Ocean City's Office of Emergency Management during any public emergency, including severe weather. To contact Ocean City Police for a non-emergency, call 609-399-9111.

miles of beaches

Ocean City is world famous for its silky soft sand that stretches for miles. Our beaches are clean, wide, and waiting for you to build sandcastles on.

When you first step onto Ocean City's soft beaches, it's nearly impossible not to smile and let go of your worries. That's why we go to the beach - to sit back and relax, play with our family and friends, enjoy the sun and waves. OC wins awards for its beaches nearly every year and 2016 was no different - we were voted best beach in America!

A Beach for Everyone

Did you know you have a beach personality? Maybe you like quiet, secluded beaches, or perhaps beaches brimming with people and excitement is where you want to lay your chair? OC has a beach to match your style... in the northend of the island, you'll find wide beaches with large sweeping dunes and lovely pieces of driftwood. These beaches tend to be a little more sleepy and quiet. The beaches off the Boardwalk are usually bustling with activity and fun. If you like to be near restrooms and plenty of food options, this is your best bet. As you head south, the beaches are still well attended, some by the same families year after year.

island neighborhoods

Ocean City has communities and neighborhoods each with their own personality and charm - explore them all.

There are a lot of neighborhoods packed into Ocean City's eight-miles. Though you may only recognize some of their names, like the Gardens or Boardwalk, the communities here are plentiful, each unique and charming in their own right.

North End

Ocean City's northernmost tip is home to quiet curved streets with lovely homes, each with its own look and feel. This section is referred to as "The Gardens" and there are plenty of them! The beautiful tree lined streets have a distinct neighborhood vibe and while there are many residences, there are also several shops and eateries that call this section of the island home.

Beachwalkers in the North End can easily see the Atlantic City skyline across the Great Egg Harbor Inlet and, of course, Longport's southern shore. This neighborhood is perfect for long bike rides or casual hand in hand strolls. There are playgrounds, tennis and basketball courts, parks, and even a brand new skatepark.

Downtown Asbury Avenue

Ocean City's Downtown is located between the beach and the bay on Asbury Avenue. There are more than 100 shops and restaurants open year-round between 6th and 14th Streets.

The Avenue is a destination for dining, shopping, and made-by-you gifts or souvenirs. It's a pedestrian-friendly neighborhood with shops, hair and nail salons, and one-of-a-kind boutiques – each with a unique point of view. Here you'll also find City Hall, real estate agencies and banks.

Downtown Asbury Avenue has its own schedule of special events and entertainment, including the famous spring and fall Block Parties, live music, kids' activities and tons of parades – each as distinct and family-oriented as Ocean City itself. See the Events Calendar to learn more.

Bay and Marina District

Most people's first view of Ocean City is of its gorgeous back bays. This is a mecca for water sport lovers, fishermen/women, and boaters. It's also home to the Bayside Center, a museum and institute of study devoted to the back bays. The Bayside Center offers camps all summer long and offers sailing lessons through the Ocean City Sailing Foundation.

The Ocean City Yacht Club, located here in the Bay district, was established in 1901 and is home to one of the most competitive sailing programs in the Mid-Atlantic region. It's also a fabulous spot to have your wedding.

The Boardwalk

As you ascend the ramps or stairs at 9th Street and the Boardwalk, you can smell the fragrances of caramel popcorn, delicious pizza, and crispy french fries. Then you walk just a little quicker knowing what deliciousness awaits you at the top. It's not only a feast for your stomach, the Boardwalk is a feast for eyes and ears as well. Running parallel to the gorgeous views of the ever-changing Atlantic Ocean is one element that makes the Boardwalk a premier destination, but also the unique shops, eateries, activities, Music Pier and amusement piers. There is literally so much to do here, that a week stay isn't enough to take it all in.

A favorite of many visitors and locals is a morning walk or jog along the entire span of the Boardwalk from St. James Place to 23rd Street. Since it's 2.5 miles one way, a round trip virtually guarantees you an extra slice of pizza for dinner with no calorie worries. From 5th to 15th you'll find the most shops, restaurants and attractions. The other streets offer a quieter scene with the same lush landscape and pristine ocean views. The entire Boardwalk is smoke free.

South End

As you make your way to OC's southern section, the island narrows and the distance between the beach and the bay is close enough for a quick stroll to see the light change over the Atlantic as the sun begins its descent to watching it dip below the horizon over the bay. There are wide open streets here with lovely homes, shops and restaurants. The south end is perfect for both biking and walking. If hiking is your thing, head due south to the end of the island, where Corson's Inlet State Park sits. The lush sandy trails offer a perfect beach terrain and all lead out to the ocean or inlet. Bird lovers and nature lovers will enjoy taking these trails any time of the year.

island entertainment

Ocean City is an entire island of fun, just waiting for you to arrive. If you're an extreme thrill seeker, or just enjoy a good laugh, you've come to the right place.

Let's Go to the Rides!

Like beacons calling you to the shore, Ocean City's Ferris Wheels can be seen day and night from two of the bridges heading into the island and from the Garden State Parkway. These wheels are surrounded by other rides offering both smaller and bigger thrills. There are two amusement piers along the Boardwalk, each offering a ton of fun, games, good food, and of course, rides for every member of the family.

Tee Time

Miniature golf on the island is a must do and has become a tradition for many visiting families. Grab your tiny pencil and your colored ball and club and it's go time. Whether you're dealing with a giant squid, a creepy skeleton, or a black light paradise, this is your year to win. There are miniature golf courses on the Boardwalk and off.

Pinball Wizard

If you roll the ball up the left side of the lane with about a seven on the strength scale, it may just flip up and land swish-style into the 100 hole. Or your skee ball free game dreams will have to wait as the ball bounces out and drops down to the 10. If an afternoon of skee ball, pinball, pacman, whack-a-mole or air hockey sounds good, OC has you covered. There are arcades all over the Boardwalk, one even open 24 hours a day!

Splish-Splash

Race you to the bottom? Only if we can do Shotgun Falls next! There are phrases only those who've been to the OC Waterpark will understand. And if you understood those first two lines, then you are an experienced waterparker. The OC Waterpark is like its own little adventure island - complete with lazy river, tons of slippery slides, (one that's eight-stories high), Lil Buc's Bay - a pirate ship kids play area, concession stands, Air Jumpers, and a climbing wall.

Good Character

OC's constantly entertaining its visitors. From Downtown parades to Boardwalk Mascot meet and greets, there's always something fun happening on the island. Check the Events Calendar to plan your visit around your favorite event!

on the water

From surf fishing to stand-up paddleboarding, the waters around Ocean City are brimming with activity.

Most visitors to Ocean City know the Atlantic Ocean faces the eastern coast of the island... but did you know that the Intracoastal Waterway winds its way through the island's many creeks, lagoons and bay coves on the western edge? And that the Intracoastal Waterway leads all the way down to Florida? If you're a trivia buff, avid boater, or just love looking at maps, check out the marine chart of the area online, at www.nauticalcharts.noaa.gov.

Personal Watercraft

Imagine yourself surrounded by the early morning sounds of birds calling to one another as you paddle through the still waters of our back bay system while the cool morning air breezes around you. Are you going under the bridge or are you heading through the Rainbow Channel? Kayaks and stand up paddleboards bring you about as close to our waterworld as you can get. Tours are offered throughout the summer by several OC businesses. The calm bay waters are also perfect if you like to rev it up a bit... with water skiing, tubing, small boats or other personal watercraft. For the more adventurous the ocean with its constantly swirling activity is available too for riding with any of these crafts, motorized and not.

Charter Boats & Cruises

Larger fishing vessels also work the waters around Ocean City. With a group charter or party boat, cast a line by yourself or with your best mates. The experienced and knowledgeable captain and crew will help you land the big one.

Sightseeing by water is another way to take in the natural beauty of the New Jersey seashore around Ocean City. Several tour operators serve the island with some tours geared specifically for kids (both big and small)!

Sailing

If you've always imagined yourself a salty sailor, but don't know the difference between a jibe and a tack, then spend a day taking a sailing lesson. OC's waters on any given day are home to gorgeous sailboats peacefully streaming across the bay or ocean. Rentals, lessons and sailing camps are available for every level of sailor - adults and kids. Camps are offered at the Ocean City Yacht Club and through the Ocean City Sailing Foundation, ocsailingfoundation.org.

Parasailing

It's hard not to get inspired when you're laying on the beach, look up and see two people having the time of their life, soaring hundreds of feet above you out over the ocean. Parasailing is an incredible way to get a personalized, birds-eye view of the island and its surroundings. Don't forget to wave to us below!

Surfing

There are three guarded surfing beaches in OC: Waverly Boulevard (in the North-end) and at 7th and 16th Streets, but surfing is allowed on all beaches when lifeguards are off duty. OC has consistent waves with good breaks, making it a popular spot for surfers. Check the local surf shops for wave reports, board rentals and lessons, plus go online for surf cams to see the conditions before you head out.

If you're a windsurfer or kitesurfer, you'll find enough breeze over the Atlantic for a killer ride. Not sure what these are? Take a lesson while you're here.

Boat Launches

There are two public access boat ramps in Ocean City: one at Tennessee Avenue and the other in the southern tip at Corson's Inlet State Park.

The municipal boat ramp at Tennessee Avenue sits between 22nd and 23rd Streets on the bay. There you can pick up supplies, bait, ice, and refreshments. The ramp is in operation April 1 to September 30. Launch fees are $12 daily or $95 for the season before April 30, $120 after. Second seasonal pass is $50 before April 30 and $65 after. • 609-525-9289.

At the island's southern tip, the state operates a boat launch at Corson's Inlet State Park. The ramp is in operation year round. Fees are charged Memorial Day to Labor Day, $12 daily or $60 annually for NJ residents; $20 daily, $80 annually for non-NJ residents • 609-861-2404.

Wearing a USCG-approved personal flotation device is required for both operators and passengers in the waters off the New Jersey coast.

Fishing

Can't think of anything better than casting a line while on vacation? In OC, you're not alone! There are plenty of ways to fish the waters around our island. You can surf fish, pier fish, take a fishing charter cruise, or head out on your own boat. Anglers around these parts land bluefish, flounder, sea bass, tautog (blackfish), kingfish, shark and the famous striped bass (rockfish). Fishermen flock to the beach during the "blitz," when stripers pass through by the thousand, following schools of bunker. Spring and autumn bluefish runs are equally dramatic, as the feeding reaches frenzy proportions.

In the bays and creeks, weakfish (sea trout) are a favorite catch, along with sea bass, "snapper" blues, croaker and flounder. Just north of town, parts of the old Longport Bridge have been converted to a fishing pier. In the heart of town, the 9th Street bridge causeway has its own fishing pier. And south of town the Ocean Drive/Rush Chatten Bridge was designed specially to accommodate anglers.

Get the kids involved! The tasty blueclaw crab is easy to catch with line or trap in the backbays and creeks. Kids love outsmarting the feisty crustaceans. Ask the bait shop for a rundown on size limits.

Offshore Action

New Jersey's offshore waters are world famous for spine-tingling sportfishing action. Above the ridges, canyons, wrecks and reefs, anglers take prize-winning tuna, mahi (dorado), blue and white marlin, shark, wahoo and more. West of the county, the vast Delaware Bay yields more varieties, including drumfish, sheepshead, channel catfish and more.

Ask the Experts

To learn what's running and which baits and lures are doing the trick, just ask any of Ocean City's fishing docks and tackle shops. News travels fast around here – especially when fish tales are the topic.

Know the Rules

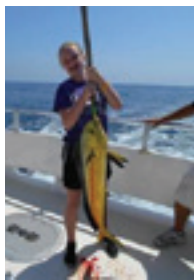

While no license is required to fish the saltwater around Ocean City, anglers must register with the NJ Saltwater Recreational Registration Program at www.nj.gov/dep/saltwaterregistry. Registration is free. Licenses are required for harvesting clams and other shellfish. Find more info at New Jersey Fish and Wildlife Digest, available at local bait shops and tackle dealers. Online, learn more at nj.gov/dep/fgw.

Beach Walks

What is that tiny little shell you spotted yesterday? What is a sea cucumber? Is that horseshoe crab dangerous? The beach is filled with tons of unanswered questions for most of us. It's fun to shell seek, pretend you're a treasure hunter and spend time out on the sand looking for your next big find. Maybe it's beach glass, maybe it's a rare shell. But if you want to know more about our coastline, shells and wildlife, take a free guided beach tour this summer. Beach Walks are offered Tuesdays and Wednesdays in July and August in two different spots on the island; at Corson's Inlet in the south end and in the northend.

Nature at its Finest

There is so much natural beauty in Ocean City that it's hard to go inside (especially if you suffer from F.O.M.O. - Fear of Missing Out). After all, what if that crowned night heron comes along after you've called it a day? With monarch butterflies descending on the island in fall, to sand plovers dancing on the shore in summer, OC has gorgeous wildlife spotting opportunities all over the island. In last year's fall and winter, a humpback whale gave visitors and locals alike a special treat, jumping in and out of the surf.

Stainton Wildlife Refuge

On Bay Avenue between 23rd and 30th Streets, 16 acres of protected dune and marsh is a haven for native and migrating birds. An elevated observation platform gives birdwatchers a birds-eye view. Park at the airport, 26th and Bay.

The Bayside Center

A visit to the Bayside Center at 520 Bay Avenue delivers an in-depth look at Ocean City's natural habitat. On nearly two acres of beachfront, this converted historic home (originally owned by the Diesel family) is a busy educational institute. It includes the lifeguard museum, ship models and tanks of live local sea creatures, plus a schedule of programs and summer camps. The public dock is open year round and makes a terrific spot to watch the sun set over Great Egg Harbor Bay – or the annual Night in Venice boat parade. • 609-525-9244 summer; 609-525-9301 winter.

Corson's Inlet State Park

The southern tip of our island is a quiet, undeveloped state park with acres of wild dunes, a beautiful cove lagoon and beachfront access. At Corson's Inlet, the majesty of the seashore has been preserved as it was centuries ago.

area attractions

Ocean City is centrally located among a treasure trove of destinations and activities at the southern Jersey Shore, each a short car ride away.

Casino Excitement

The endless entertainment and excitement of Atlantic City's casino resort scene is north by about 30 minutes. There's always action at the tables and in the city's many showrooms.

Aquarium at Gardner's Basin

When is the last time you touched a starfish? Fed a stingray? At the AC Aquarium, life is about to get a little more aquatic... Four historic lighthouses are within reach of Ocean City: Absecon Light is New Jersey's tallest, in northern Atlantic City. The Hereford Inlet Light stands in stunning English-style gardens in North Wildwood. Cape May Lighthouse at Cape May Point rises above a park and migratory bird flyway. And the East Point Light near Heislerville is a unique example of a 19th century river light.

island arts & culture

Thomas Edison said genius is one percent inspiration and 99 percent perspiration. Well, if you're looking for that one percent of inspiration, you will find it here on the island as countless artists and writers have before. The natural beauty of Ocean City, combined with its love and support of the arts, make it a haven for all writers, artists, and anyone who just loves being creative.

Ocean City Arts Center

The Ocean City Arts Center is a universal resource for artists and art lovers. A visit to one of the second floor rooms (there's an elevator for your convenience as well as stairs) could bring you into the middle of an art lesson with a renowned area artist or have you watch a little ballerina spin and twirl. In addition to classes and lessons, there are exhibitions, meet-the-artist events, and summer camps for kids. Popular annual events include Juried Photography Show, Regional Juried Art Show, Holiday Open House Festival and the nationally-renowned Boardwalk Art Show. • 609-399-7628 or oceancityartscenter.org.

Free Public Library

Ocean City's library is simply one of the best at the shore, with an enormous selection of books, (two floors of them!), magazines, movies, music, reference materials, computers with online access and a staff of friendly information experts. The kids section offers books, computers, and squishy comfy chairs for your little one to relax on while they read. The library also hosts events, including a free Saturday afternoon movie, book clubs, lectures and other offerings for both adults and kids, year round. Vacation visitors welcome. • 609-399-2434 or oceancitylibrary.org.

Historical Museum

A lot has happened on our island since the founders mapped out their seaside spiritual retreat on “Peck’s Beach” back in 1879. Much of Ocean City’s important history is documented at the Historical Museum. A comprehensive collection of artifacts and documents is handsomely displayed and interpreted by knowledgeable guides. Special events are held throughout the year. • 609-399-1801 or ocnjmuseum.org.

Fine Arts League

At 608 Asbury Avenue, the Ocean City Fine Arts League has created a space dedicated to exhibition and teaching. If you’re looking to bring home a souvenir you will always treasure, browse the FAL’s walls - there are pieces of art in all sizes, shapes, and mediums. The FAL also hosts a Tuesday night movie and discussion at the Library once a month • 609-814-0308 or oceancityfineartsleague.org.

Ocean City Pops

With a history spanning 88 years, since the Music Pier first opened in 1929, the Ocean City Pops have been entertaining groups with their beautiful music. Today, their schedule includes internationally renowned guest performers through the summer – plus special events in the off-season. There’s nothing quite like the excitement of live orchestra music. • oceancitypops.com.

Music at the Tabernacle

Inspiration through song is a perennial part of the Ocean City Tabernacle’s summer schedule. • 609-399-1915 or octabernacle.org.

Ocean City Theatre Company

OCTC works with the OC Pops to put on four Broadway-style musical performances a year, five children’s theatre performances, plus they host camps and classes for kids. Under the direction of Michael Hartman, OCTC brings Broadway to the island. • oceancitytheatrecompany.com.

Concerts at the Beach

Again this year is an Ocean City concert series featuring a variety of favorite bands and entertainers on Monday nights throughout the summer. • ocnj.us.

staying over

They say you've got to stay to play, and in OC, it's no different. Staying over doubles your fun and maxes your relaxation.

Day trips to OC are fun and can be spontaneous and thrilling, but the chance to watch the sun rise over the Atlantic in your pajamas with your hands wrapped around a warm cup of coffee or tea is simply fabulous. Spending one or two nights, a week, or an entire summer in Ocean City is a wonderful escape that's made easy by the number of hotels, motels, bed and breakfasts, rental homes and campgrounds available on or around the island.

time to eat

Ocean City is a foodie paradise from fine seafood dinners to fresh salads and buckets of fries, from taffy pulled while you watch to hand poured caramel corn - get ready to eat well.

One of the best parts of being on vacation is spending time with family and friends at a restaurant or at your own breakfast table, noshing on new treats or familiar ones you can't wait to try again. Ocean City is an island filled with yummy foods from sweet treats to savory bites. Feeling fancy? Sit down at a table covered in white cloth and candlelight. Don't want to take off those flip flops? Grab a slice or two on the Boards or on the Avenue.

Fine Food Traditions

Some of our eateries have been making their sweet treats for over 100 years, like salt water taffy, hand-crafted chocolates, fudge and pastry. From your first morning cup of coffee to a late night snack, we have you covered with the tried and true stand bys and more trendy treats. Have you tried cold brewed coffee? There are a few spots in town serving up this latest caffeine jolt. For breakfast you can sit right on the Boardwalk, outside on Asbury Avenue, or tucked in to one of the many restaurants dotted all over the island. Lunch and dinner offer a range of global cuisines like Hawaiian, Italian, French, Caribbean, Greek, Chinese, and Japanese. Naturally, our seafood is served up fresh and delicious at a large number of restaurants in town. From fried shrimp to cheesesteaks, from filet mignon to spaghetti, you will be satisfied.

Ocean City remains a “dry” town, a legacy of its founding as a religious retreat. Of course, for adults 21 and older, you can enjoy libations in the privacy of your home or room – you just have to plan ahead. Package goods stores are located within five minutes of city limits.

Boardwalk

Eating on the Boardwalk is like being in Willy Wonka’s Chocolate Room. Almost everything is eatable, er edible. Okay, perhaps you’re not going to be munching the dishes, but you get the idea. Delicious food is only steps away pretty much anywhere you walk on those famous wooden planks. Fries? We got some of the best you’ll every taste. Pizza? There are so many pizza choices, you can try a different one each day of your vacay and vote on your fave. But how about firecracker shrimp or a big fresh salad? There is a large range of food choices on the Boards... give them a try! If you’re calorie counting, you certainly won’t go hungry. In addition to salads, there are fresh fruit smoothies, pitaya bowls, grilled chicken and seafood, and acai bowls.

Downtown

A favorite among locals and visitors is the Avenue. Right in the heart of town, there are restaurants, coffee shops, sweet shops, and even a hand made chocolate and candy store. Practice your “Opa!” with authentic Greek cuisine, perfect your chopstick ability or learn the proper way to say, “gnocchi” all in Downtown OC. These chefs take pride in their dishes - ones you will remember long after you leave the island.

Bay/North & South Ends

Breakfast awaits outside on the docks, while the cool breeze tickles your skin. You’ll find spots for lunch and dinner here, too, in a variety of cuisines. Meal not complete without dessert? Grab an ice cream before you head home. In the North and South Ends, more variety awaits from a sandwich shop serving up hot and cold creations on par with the best in big cities, to handmade donuts and fresh, amazing scones and breads. There are amazing food finds here for you to discover.

An Ocean City Tradition
"Since 1937"

let's go shopping

If vacation means discovering cool, quirky shops or finding that perfect gift for your best friend, you'll be in retail heaven while you're in OC.

There's a reason they say shopping is therapy... there's just something about strolling into well-appointed shops filled with beautiful goods and wares that elicits a smile. Ocean City is filled with charming boutiques, antique shops, and specialty stores just waiting for you to find that one thing (or two or three things) you must have.

Downtown

With over 100 shops and restaurants packed in just a few blocks, Asbury Avenue between 6th and 14th Streets and its side streets are home to shopping that's fresh and fun. It's a world you can easily get lost in (willingly of course) as you browse books, music, art, clothes, gifts, plants and jewelry. The Avenue is also home to a few "made-by-you" shops that offer customers a twist on the traditional shopping experience. Make your own necklace, earrings or bracelet, paint a mug, or create your own mosaic.

This is interactive shopping at its finest. The Avenue is open year round so the fun doesn't stop.

Boardwalk

You know the excitement of discovering a shop that's just, well, awesome? On the Boardwalk, there are so many shops that you are bound to find one, two, or ten that you put at the top of your list. Yes, there are plenty of souvenir and tee shirt shops, (where else are you going to find that OCBP shirt for your buddy?) but mixed in with those old faves are new specialty boutiques that sell adorable children's clothes and accessories, home goods, homemade soaps and other body products, personalized items, and more.

Bayfront

OCEAN CITY'S HISTORY IS A RICH tapestry of events stretching back to the late 19th century. Years before the first European settlers dubbed it "Peck's Beach," the island was a summer fishing camp for native Leni- Lenape people and also served as a grazing land for cattle driven from the mainland. The barrier island of dunes, meadows, beach and cedar swamps took its first name from John Peck, who used the island as a staging area for his shore-based whaling operation.

Original ownership of the land is traced to the family of Richard Somers, one of America's first naval heroes. Only an intrepid few made their homes here, as getting on and off the island was exclusively by water.

The seeds of a future city were sown in 1879, when four Methodist ministers saw in Peck's Beach the ideal place to establish a Christian retreat and camp meeting. Ezra B. Lake, James Lake, S. Wesley Lake and William Burrell coined the name "Ocean City," laid out a street grid, built utilities and sold lots for cottages, hotels and businesses.

The first building of what would become the Tabernacle was finished in 1881, along with the island's first school. The first bridge went up in 1883 and the railroad soon followed, bringing both the devout in search of religious retreat and vacationers seeking solace from the noise of the city.

Since those early days, Ocean City has transformed itself into "America's Greatest Family Resort,” a top-rated vacation destination. The Tabernacle is still a dynamic place for praise and worship. The legacy of the founders also remains in the absence of liquor sales within the city limits. Its status as a “dry” town is one important reason Ocean City has become a family favorite. To learn more, visit the Historical Museum at 17th Street & Simpson Ave. OC’s timeline is cataloged and preserved there: the growth of the early city and Boardwalk, the 1901 wreck of the four masted Sindia, the 1927 fire and the battle over “Blue Laws.” Ocean City has remained a sought-after vacation destination through all the economic and political changes Americans have seen over the past 138 years.

Generations have been enjoying America’s Greatest Family Resort...

Come learn more of the story!
